

MindSpace Bender on a Ride: subheaded of Great Materials
All these things must I

Take you on a sound journey unlike the norm. These sounds the bass the loops the strangeness. What jam is this freeform freemind live free or die. Lyrical madness and subjective reality born to undo the confusion and gather enough humans to destroy the corrupt pre-fab musicalee menace. Retreat beneath my feet you fonderlackers. Lay waste to your mediocrity it must taste metallic and gnarly in your mind.

Furthermore I present a taste of things to come. More art more textures more mind folding. They have thought about it and turned away due to the insane nature of the planet. Laughter is the best medicine and I say most people are the SCARECROW. 19
